

2013 Outstanding Conservation Cooperator Award

Robert Hertzfeld, of Water-ville Township, Ohio, was proudly named the 2013 Outstanding Conservation Cooperator of the year for the Lucas Soil and Water Conservation District.

Mr. Hertzfeld is retired from Hertzfeld Poultry Farms and has been employed in farming and the poultry business for 40 years. He has served as Water-ville Township Trustee for 35 years. His current interests include photography and preserving our most important natural resources.

Mr. Hertzfeld served two separate terms for a total of 23 years on the Board of Supervisors for LSWCD. He is also a past President of Lucas County Association of Townships and Clerks. As a supervisor, Mr. Hertzfeld emphasized preserving our most important natural resources: soil and water. The future depends on how we take care and preserve our soil and water.
