

Ashland University Grad Credit

Grad Credit is being offered for the 3G Workshop as an additional option for professional development. This is a separate cost from the workshop registration. Below are instructions on registering for grad credit.

Credits Offered: One (1)

Cost: $185 / Grad Credit

Registration:

Ashland University has moved to a new software platform, and everyone will need to create a brand-new profile regardless of whether they have taken courses with Ashland in the past. Once you create the new account, the new system will sync with the old system and merge your profiles together.

Self-Service Ashland allows you to view your records with the university. To login, Self-Service asks you for an Ashland University email address and password. Your Ashland University email address is your Ashland University username + @ashland.edu. If you don't already have a login, please visit <https://pass.it.ashland.edu/authorization.do>.

- Ashland Student Portal: <https://tinyurl.com/y7dxe7np>
- Once you have your student portal setup, you can register for the 3G Workshop Grad Credit Course: <https://tinyurl.com/y568m5cz>

Course Requirements

Participants will be given the opportunity to do two lesson plans that will share how they will use what they have learned in 2 separate lesson plans. OR participants may choose to create one lesson plan and also write a 2 page, double-spaced reflective paper based on the 3-day educator workshop. They must point out two key items they gleaned from the workshop that they can utilize in their classroom or on their school grounds. They may also research to find out what place-based entities they might incorporate into their classrooms.

Additional Information:

- If you do not know your username or you are having trouble, you can call the Ashland Technical Support Center or TSC for help at 419-289-5405.
- Please note - the student portal and the adjunct portal are the same
